1.EPA:

Inside Pruitt's conflicting approaches to Okla. energy cases

When Oklahoma Gas & Electric, the Sooner State's largest utility, requested a $1 billion rate hike three years ago, the power company found a ready ally in Republican Scott Pruitt, the state attorney general. Public Service Company of Oklahoma, the state's second-largest utility, wasn't so lucky. The attorney general fiercely opposed the company's $130 million requested rate increase.
